

Donation Requests

Lincoln Pipestone Rural Water is proud to serve the communities within our system and values the many organizations that contribute to the quality of life in our region.

As a public entity, LPRW operates under statutory requirements and fiduciary responsibilities that strictly govern the use of public funds. All revenues collected are designated for the operation, maintenance, and improvement of the rural water system in accordance with state law and board policy.

For this reason, Lincoln Pipestone Rural Water is not authorized to make charitable donations or provide financial sponsorships.

We appreciate your understanding and thank you for the important work you do in our communities.
